

Cash Awards for Artists - Application deadline October 1

Encaustic by S.Clough Suiter,
Previous Award Recipient

The Alex Combs Artist Award Fund is a designated fund administered by the Bunnell Street Art Center for artists working in ceramics, painting and sculpture. The fund has been built from cash donations and the sale of works by the late Alex Combs, a renowned artist and multi-media mentor.

Individuals may apply for up to $500 to explore new techniques and ideas through workshops and symposiums.

Artists are required to be an Alaskan resident, and provide a statement about the intended use of the cash award, plus a resume and up to 10 digital images of recent work. Please submit the items or inquire to info@bunnellstreetgallery.org by October 1, 2010.

2012 Exhibition Application Deadline October 29

In order to consider your work for exhibition we require

- a letter of application
- an artist's statement
- a resume
- 5 images representative of the body of work you wish to exhibit.

Please send all application materials by email directly to Bunnell Street Arts Center at asia@bunnellstreetgallery.org. Please do not send more than five images. Application volume in previous years has made it necessary for us to limit the number of images we can jury. Indicate the months when you would prefer to exhibit. Artists are encouraged to apply for collaborative, shared and invitational exhibition formats as well as solo shows. Email questions and/or applications to: Asia Freeman, Exec./Artistic Director, asia@bunnellstreetgallery.org

Chopin's Birthday Celebrated in Concert, October 9, 8 PM

Acclaimed Alaskan pianist, Juliana Osinchuk, returns to Homer for a special concert commemorating the 200th birthday of Polish-French composer, Frederic Chopin.   - Finale - Presto, non tanto*

JAZZLINE Dance Oct 22 & 23 supports Artist in Schools

Jocelyn describes this year's Jazzline, "It will again be a show of great variety.....from contemporary dance, to ethnic, to urban/street dance, to Fosse, to musical. There will be a couple of montages or groupings of dances with general themes. One will be an ode to this time of year, you know.... Halloween! One will be more magical and ethereal.

Music will range from Broadway musical to pop to hip hop to afro-latin to R&B to classical. I have 40 dancers this year, aged 8 to 50. There will be more of an adult component to the show than last year, although my youth dancers are dancing plenty! Two adult males will do a dance with two adult females, and I have 3 new older teen boys partnering my teen girls, two of whom will be graduating this year. There is a surprise to this year's show, that has never been done before, but I am not giving the secret away; people just have to come and find out what it is!"

Jazzline takes place at Homer Mariner Theater Oct 22 at 7:30 PM & October 23 at 3 PM and 7:30 PM. Tickets are $8 Youth / $12 members / $15 general.

Life Drawing resumes in late October, tba.

The Homer Life Drawing Group is seeking a new coordinator for the 2010-2011 session. Life Drawing meets weekly throughout the winter for self-directed study from live models. Coordinator schedules models and collects participation fees to pay for models. Models are also needed. For more information about Life Drawing Group contact Gaye Wolfe at 235-7696.

Bunnell Street Arts Center is a non-profit organization supported in part by grants from the City of Homer Grants Program through the Homer Foundation, the Rasmuson Foundation, the Alaska State Council on the Arts, the National Endowment for the Arts and the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act.

The arts center is open Monday through Saturday 12 to 5pm.
